OWNERSHIP

TOM BENSON

In a career in business and professional sports that spanned over 70 years, Tom Benson was an endearing figure in his hometown of New Orleans as well as throughout the NBA and the NFL. Mr. Benson served as the owner of the New Orleans Pelicans since 2012 and the New Orleans Saints since 1985 until his death on March 15, 2018. He was survived by his wife Gayle.

Thomas Milton Benson, Jr. was born on July 12, 1927 in New Orleans. Raised in the city's St. Roch neighborhood, Mr. Benson graduated from St. Aloysius High School (Now Brother Martin) in 1944. Following his graduation, he enrolled at Loyola University New Orleans to study business and accounting. He interrupted his education to enlist in the U.S. Navy in 1945, where he was assigned to the USS South Dakota. Upon the conclusion of World War II, Mr. Benson returned home to New Orleans and continued his business administration studies.

In 1948, he went to work as a bookkeeper for the Cathey Chevrolet Co. in New Orleans and by 1956, at age 29, Mr. Benson was on his way to manage a Chevrolet dealership as a junior partner. Six years later, he took full control of the company and established a multi-dealership organization with outlets throughout the New Orleans area and South Texas. In 1972, Mr. Benson entered the banking business and eventually took his banking network public as Benson Financial World.

By the 1980's Mr. Benson had built a highly successful network in the automotive and banking industries in both Southeast Louisiana and South Texas, but while a fan of the game of football and the Saints, the sport had yet to become one of his passions. However, he realized the importance of the New Orleans Saints to his hometown and on May 31, 1985, he purchased the team after learning that the NFL franchise was on the verge of being sold to parties interested in relocating the team.

Not surprisingly, success soon followed as the Saints entered the most compelling and memorable period in franchise history under Mr. Benson's leadership after having previously not enjoyed a winning record or a playoff berth. In 1986, in one of his first personnel moves as Owner, he hired Jim Finks as president/general manager and Jim Mora as head coach. In 1987, the Saints broke through with a 12-3 record and hosted their first playoff contest. In its first 17 seasons of existence, the Saints won a total of 73 games. Under Benson's guidance, the franchise exceeded that win total in only eight years by 1992. The Saints reached even greater heights in 2006, when he entrusted Executive Vice-President/General Manager Mickey Loomis to hire Sean Payton as head coach and sign free agent quarterback Drew Brees. Since those moves, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 119-85 overall record over the last 12 years, capped by the Super Bowl XLIV Championship. Overall, since being purchased by Mr. Benson in 1985, the Saints have earned 11 playoff berths, six division titles and captured Super Bowl XLIV in 2009, building a foundation for continued success, on and off the field. Mr. Benson's commitment to winning and serving the community was an opportunity to reward the team's fans, whose support has reached new heights with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome being sold-out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 people. By the end of the 2017 season, the consecutive sellout streak had extended to 122 games.

During Mr. Benson's illustrious career, 50 of his players were Pro Bowl selections, including two AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year selections by Brees and him being named AP Athlete of the Year and Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year in 2010 and three offensive or defensive Rookies of the Year. Also four of Benson's players were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Benson created a team Ring of Honor that features players from the past, while creating a special place for Saints stars of the future to be recognized. Possessing the desire to give back to the great game of football, in 2014 Mr. Benson pledged two significant gifts totaling $11 million to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. $10 million was earmarked for the immediate renovation of the Hall's onsite stadium, which hosts the annual enshrinement ceremony, the NFL Hall of Fame Game, two high school football teams and two college teams in Canton, Ohio, which was renamed "Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium." The additional one million dollars is the first donation towards the establishment of the Hall of Fame's Legends Landing program, a mixed-use residence that will include room for Hall of Famers and former NFL Players.

Mr. Benson also played a key role among NFL owners in various capacities for his 33 years of ownership of the Saints, including serving 25 years as Chairman of the Finance Committee, one of the League's most difficult, time-consuming and influential positions, with his most recent term ending in 2013. The assignment was evidence of the respect and esteem in which successive NFL commissioners and his fellow owners held him.

In 2012 Mr. Benson purchased the Hornets franchise from the National Basketball Association, which was successfully rebranded as the Pelicans. The objectives in his ownership of the basketball team were the same as his stewardship of the Saints: to produce a team on-the-court that will compete for championships every year, while making a significant positive impact off-the-court in the community. Upon the ownership transfer, construction immediately started on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility adjacent to the Saints practice fields, which now comprises the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, with the entire Pelicans organization being housed together for the first time in the franchise's history. Through agreements with the state of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone nearly a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD video scoreboard in 2015, along with several fan upgrades. On the court, after Mr. Benson inherited a team that finished with the worst record in the NBA's Western Conference in 2011-12, the Pelicans have built through a combination of the draft, free agent signings and trades to become a stable and successful organization, reaching the playoffs for the second time in 2018 since the purchase of the club.

In addition to the success and the commitment to the community by the Saints and Pelicans, the efforts of ownership have also paid great economic dividends for the city of New Orleans and the surrounding areas. Since Mr. Benson first purchased the team in 1985, the city has hosted five Super Bowls, including Super Bowl XLVII, with him being the driving force behind each campaign to secure the contest. Each Super Bowl has been an economic windfall, the 2013 game in New Orleans totaling $480 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions the NFL makes during Super Bowl week that extends for generations. Through Mr. Benson's commitment to the Pelicans and his hometown, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017 with his lobbying playing a significant role. The most recent All-Star Weekend brought approximately $45 million in spending to Louisiana, and made the city one of just six current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times.

Dedication to the Gulf South were among Mr. Benson's most rewarding endeavors. Since 2005, the Saints have positioned themselves as a leader in the recovery of the region in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. Immediately after the storm, they established the Saints Hurricane Katrina Fund, which raised over one million dollars to benefit worthy causes that helped in the region's recovery. The club was among the first major businesses to return to New Orleans, and in 2006 had a thrilling season where they reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time, becoming an inspiration for a region on the mend. In 2010, the club established the Saints Gulf Coast Renewal Fund, which raised over $1.5 million through the raffle of a Super Bowl ring and the 2012 raffle of Saints and Pelicans game day experiences. Over one million dollars has been distributed to charities, such as the local chapters of the Second Harvest Food Bank and Catholic Charities to help provide support of those affected by subsequent natural and manmade disasters, including the 2010 Gulf of Mexico oil spill, Hurricane Isaac and flooding throughout the State in 2016. The efforts of the organization have continued to lift the community, with the team serving as an economic engine and a pacesetter in philanthropic contributions. In 2008, Mr. Benson was selected by the Volunteers of America as the winner of its annual Good Samaritan Award in Philanthropy in recognition of his work in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. In 2015, he was honored by New Orleans City Business as one of the region's 35 "Driving Forces" for his contributions to the community since Hurricane Katrina.

Mr. Benson also worked through investment to help stimulate the development of the city's Central Business District, directly adjoining the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, starting with the 2009 purchase of the formerly vacant and blighted Dominion Tower and the unoccupied New Orleans Centre. The two important commercial spaces, which were vacant since Katrina struck New Orleans in 2005, have returned that region of the CBD into a more vibrant and viable sector of the city and revitalized an area that was largely ignored for four years following Hurricane Katrina. The renovated Benson Tower has served as a boon to this important business corridor, while "Champions Square", which made its debut in 2010 adjacent to the former mall, is continually being developed and enhanced into a world-class sports and entertainment destination. This economic investment plan, which included 2009 agreements on both a private and public level, has revitalized the Mercedes-Benz Superdome area, and the agreement with the state included a dramatic modernization of the stadium which was completed in 2011. Following the debut of the renovations, the Saints, under the leadership of Mr. Benson, Mrs. Benson and Mercedes-Benz USA, reached a ten-year agreement to rename the facility the "Mercedes-Benz Superdome." The stadium upgrades and rebranding include a legion of new enhancements that have significantly improved the fan experience for all events at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and kept the building competitive with new facilities across the country, allowing it to continue to host elite events including Super Bowl XLVII, the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship and the upcoming 2022 Final Four, two College Football Playoff semifinal contests and the CFP championship game. Recognizing the need for the stadium to be consistently upgraded, Mr. and Mrs. Benson most recently collaborated with the state on a multi-million dollar enhancement project for which they contributed $25 million, resulting in significant technology-related enhancements to improve the fan experience, headlined by the addition of two state-of-the-art LED video boards that debuted in 2016.

In addition to three weekly in-season television programs, the Saints now produce numerous specials that have aired on three different local television stations throughout each season.

In 2006, the Saints achieved the first season ticket sellout in team history, a feat the team has equaled each season since then. The club was named the 2006 Marketer of the Year by the American Marketing Association's New Orleans regional chapter and also received the 2007 MAX Award for its 2006 "Winning Is An Attitude" advertising campaign.

Hales joined the Saints in 2000 as a corporate sales account executive. In 2001, he was promoted to corporate sales and broadcasting manager before becoming a director the following year and assuming the responsibilities of business and marketing operations.

Prior to joining the Saints, Hales worked in television advertising in the New Orleans market. In addition to his community efforts on behalf of the team, Hales is a member of the board of directors of GNO, Inc., and the People's Health Champions Selection Committee while also serving on the Super Bowl Bid Executive Committee and the NCAA Final Four Committee. Hales has also recently served on the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and NBA All-Star Host Committee.

In 2013, Hales was honored as a Young Leadership Council (YLC) Role Model and was named as one of The Gambit's 40 under 40 in 2012.

A native of New Orleans and a longtime Saints terrace and plaza level season ticket holder before joining the club, Hales earned a degree in English from the University of Mississippi in 1996.

MICHAEL STANFIELD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

As Senior Vice President of Sales of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, Michael Stanfield is a key member of the front office for both clubs. He oversees the entire consumer and corporate sales efforts for both teams, the two revenue-producing facets of both organizations.

Entering his seventh season with the Pelicans and 19th with the Saints, Stanfield is responsible for all of both clubs' sales efforts – directing the sale of season tickets, group tickets, floor seats and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives to the next level in their field, supervising the lease of the Smoothie King Center and Mercedes-Benz Superdome luxury suites, managing food and beverage for both facilities, overseeing a vast merchandising business for both teams flanked by a new Pelicans and Saintsd team store, as well as maintaining the clubs' high standards of customer service and retention.

Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket sales and merchandise sales that were the second-biggest growth in the NBA, followed by additional significant increases.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006 – a feat that has reached 12-straight seasons. In addition the club has leased every Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 campaign. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into one of the NFL's top sellers. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones, and those efforts built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history. In 2017, the team established a single-season regular season attendance record for games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with 585,113 fans attending Saints games.

Stanfield has also helped oversee the institution of a direct mail and email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns by using the club's ever-expanding social and new media platforms. The Saints were ranked number one by the National Football League in Overall Gameday Satisfaction for the 2017 season in a survey conducted by the NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs in an eight-category review. In 2017, the Pelicans were ranked first in the NBA in season ticket holder satisfaction in a league-commissioned survey.

At the same time as making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield has also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Chevron, Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports, serving as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A baseball team in 1988 and had attained impressive sales results in sports prior to joining the Saints in 2000. In 2007, Stanfield completed Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce, and served a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and the Executive Host Committee for the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups both nationally and throughout the Gulf South.

MICKEY LOOMIS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Entering his sixth season, Mickey Loomis was appointed the Executive Vice President of Pelicans Basketball Operations in 2012. Additionally, Loomis serves as the Executive Vice President and General Manager of the New Orleans Saints, where he oversees the organization's entire football operations.

Loomis, entering his 16th season in his current position and 18th with the Saints, is a veteran of 33 years in the NFL. During his time in New Orleans, he has been honored with the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive, yet the most satisfying achievement of Loomis' career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last 11 seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to general manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of executive vice president later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel and scouting, salary cap management, contract negotiations, athletic training, equipment, video and communications.

In 2006 - after being the key figure in the hiring of Sean Payton, the signing of Drew Brees and essentially rebuilding a team that would advance to the NFC Championship – Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by the Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by five postseason appearances, three division titles and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past 11 years, he has brought aboard a collection of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 107-79 overall record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing several significant contributors to long-term contracts.

While his responsibilities have grown during his tenure with the Saints, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as director of football administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for an NFL team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

Since 2003, Loomis has overseen two extensive renovations of Saints headquarters that have added an indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria and completely renovated coaches and player personnel offices, meeting rooms and locker rooms, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes in the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October, 1983, was promoted to Vice President/Finance in 1990 and to Executive Vice President in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Wichita State University.

Prior to joining the Spurs, Demps worked for the New York Knicks from 2003 to 2005 where he joined the organization as a scout and was promoted to the Director of Pro Player Personnel. Demps also spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Mobile Revelers in the NBA Development League from 2001-2003 where the Revelers captured the 2003 Development League championship.

Demps attended the University of the Pacific where he was a four-year starter on their basketball team, earning All-Big West honors three times. As a senior, he averaged 19.0 points and 5.8 rebounds and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration. While playing professionally, each summer he returned to Pacific and completed his Master's in Business Administration in 1998. ALVIN GENTRY

HEAD COACH

On May 30, 2015, Alvin Gentry was named the head coach of the New Orleans Pelicans – the sixth in the franchise's history.

Prior to joining the Pelicans organization, Gentry served as the associate head coach of the Golden State Warriors, helping navigate the team to one of the best seasons in NBA History. The Warriors won a franchise record 67 games – good for the best record in the NBA – and defeated the Cleveland Cavaliers in six games to claim the 2015 NBA Championship - the franchise's first in 40 years.

Gentry, 62, brings more than 35 years of coaching experience to the Crescent City. Gentry has previously served as the head coach of the Miami HEAT (1995), Detroit Pistons (1997-2000), Los Angeles Clippers (2000-2003) and Phoenix Suns (2008-2013). In 705 games, Gentry has amassed a career record of 335-370 (.475). During his tenure in Detroit, Gentry led the Pistons to the 1999 NBA playoffs during his only full season as head coach of the club. In Los Angeles, Gentry improved the Clippers' record by 16 wins during his first season in 2000-01 (31-51), and added another eight wins the following season (39-43), marking the franchise's best finish in nearly a decade. As head coach of the Suns, Gentry led the team to the 2010 Western Conference finals after a 54-28 regular season record – the fourth best in Phoenix franchise history.

Known for his offensive prowess, Gentry's 2009-10 Suns team led the NBA in scoring (110.2 points per game) as well as offensive rating (115.3), and finished fourth in pace of play (95.3), while being the only team in the league to connect on over 40-percent of their three-point field goal attempts (.412). During the 2013-14 season, Gentry served as the associate head coach of the Clippers, where Los Angeles led the league in both scoring (107.9 points per game) and offensive rating (112.1), while also finishing seventh in pace of play (95.9). This past season while with the Warriors, Golden State led the league in scoring (110.0 point per game) and pace of play (98.3), while finishing second in offensive rating (111.6).

A native of Shelby, N.C., Gentry was a college point guard at Appalachian State, where he graduated with a degree in management in 1977 before embarking on a coaching career. He earned his first opportunity as a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado during the 1977-78 season and landed a full-time assistant coaching job at Baylor in 1980 before returning to Colorado as an assistant coach from 1981-85. In 1985, Gentry joined Larry Brown's staff as an assistant at the University of Kansas, helping the Jayhawks capture the 1988 National Championship and then proceeding to follow Brown to the NBA as an assistant coach on his staff with the San Antonio Spurs. This will be Gentry's second stop in New Orleans, as he served as an assistant coach for Tim Floyd's staff during the 2003-04 season.

Gentry and his wife, Suzanne, have two sons, Ryan (19) and Jack (16). Alvin also has a daughter, Alexis (32), who lives in Denver.

DARREN ERMAN
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Darren Erman enters his third season with the Pelicans after being named associate head coach on June 2, 2015. Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Erman served as an assistant coach with the Boston Celtics under Brad Stevens, helping Boston's defensive rating improve from 18th in the league (107.7) in 2013-14 to 12th (104.5) in 2014-15, and advancing to the NBA playoffs after a one year absence.

Erman joined Stevens' staff by way of Golden State, where he helped transform the Warriors' defense into one of the best in the NBA. Serving as an assistant coach from 2011-14, Golden State improved every year on the defensive end during Erman's tenure. In the 2011-12 season, his first with the team, Golden State ranked 28th in opponent points per game (101.2) and 27th in defensive rating (109.1). In his second season the Warriors improved to 19th in the league in opponent points per game (100.3) and 14th in defensive rating (105.5), and moved to 10th in the NBA in opponent points per game (99.5) and 4th in defensive rating (102.6) in the 2013-14 season.

Prior to his time in Golden State, Erman served as a coaching assistant for four season with the Celtics, working under Doc Rivers, Tom Thibodeau and Lawrence Frank. During his first stint in Boston, the Celtics captured the 2008 NBA championship, and boasted one of the league's most prolific defenses, ranking within the top five in opponent points per game and defensive rating all four years.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Erman began his coaching career as a student coach at Emory University in Atlanta, where he graduated summa cum laude/Phi Beta Kappa in 1997. After graduating from Northwestern University Law School in 2000, he practiced law at Latham & Watkins before making the decision to pursue coaching.

CHRIS FINCH
ASSISTANT COACH

Chris Finch enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Pelicans after spending the 2016-17 season with the Denver Nuggets in a similar capacity.

Known for his offensive expertise, Finch helped guide a Nuggets team that finished ranked 20th in offensive rating (102.7) and points per game (101.9) in 2015-16 to fifth in offensive rating (110.0) and third in points per game (111.7) in his lone season with the club.
Prior to joining the Nuggets, Finch spent five seasons as an assistant coach with the Houston Rockets from 2011-16 as well as two seasons with the Rockets' NBA Development League affiliate, the Rio Grande Valley Vipers. While serving as head coach of the Vipers, Finch registered a record of 67-33 (.670) and guided the team to consecutive appearances in the NBA D-League finals. In 2009-10, Finch was the recipient of the Dennis Johnson Coach of the Year Award en route to capturing the 2010 D-League championship.

Prior to his experience in the United States, Finch built a successful overseas coaching career that included taking over a dormant Great Britain National Team in May 2006 and winning FIBA's 2007 Division B Promotional Competition. In 2009, his squad qualified for the European Championships for the first time since 1981. Finch also led the British National Team in the 2012 Summer Olympics in London. Doug Tatum enters his fifth season with the New Orleans Pelicans as the Executive Director of Digital Media. Tatum oversees the direction of all digital media properties and the support staffs for both the Pelicans and the New Orleans Saints, including all social media accounts and all team related mobile platforms.

Prior to joining the Pelicans, Tatum served 13 years, first as deputy then as lead sports editor, for the state's largest newspaper, The Times-Picayune. Tatum helped usher NOLA.com through a transition phase that saw the reduction of The Times-Picayune from a daily newspaper to a more digitally focused endeavor. Tatum was part of The Times-Picayune staff that received two Pulitzer Prizes for its coverage of Hurricane Katrina and its aftermath. Under his guidance, the sports staff of The Times-Picayune earned numerous state, regional and national awards for its work.

Tatum, a 1992 graduate of Western Kentucky University and native of Louisville, also previously served as an editor at The Cincinnati Enquirer and The (Louisville) Courier-Journal.

Media Credentials

Single game requests should be directed to the Pelicans communications office no later than noon the day before the game you wish to cover. First-time requests must be in written form on company letterhead and received by the aforementioned deadline. Because of limited press seating, credentials and/or media seating cannot be guaranteed. Credentials are good for admittance to the press room, dining area, locker rooms and seating areas and may be picked up at the press entrance (located at the loading dock entrance, which is across the street from Lot #4 at the Smoothie King Center). Credentials must be worn at all times and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the arena and the forfeiture of the credential. An autograph request by a media member will also result in the forfeiture of the credential.

International Media Policy

Media representing an organization with affiliations located outside Canada or the United States must contact NBA International at (212) 407-8000 to arrange credentials. Please do not contact the Pelicans media relations department. Additional information on international media policies can be obtained from the NBA League Office.

Press Parking/Press Gate

Working media should park in Lot #4 (off of Girod Street) and cross the street to enter the Smoothie King Center through the doors by the loading dock. You will be able to pick up your credential at the security checkpoint, located at the base of the loading dock. For single-game credentialed media, your name will be on a parking list held by the security guard at the entrance of the lot. Full season credentialed media members must present their parking pass at all times for Lot 4 access.

Media Work Room

The media work room is located at the west end of the arena to the right of the loading dock areas and is open four hours before game time. Media work room usage will be limited to the working media and game staff only. Telephones, fax service, internet access, game notes, statistics, quotes and out-of-town scores are available in this area. Please use common courtesy in securing a quiet working environment in the media work room.

Smoothie King Center Press Seating

Print media press seating is located above Sections 120 and 121 of the Smoothie King Center. To access these seats from the media work room, walk out to the court, across the baseline, and up the stairs between Sections 122 and 123. Visiting sideline reporters and advance team scouts will be seated on the baseline closest to the visitor's bench in front of Section 121. Auxiliary press seating for media members and NBA team scouts is located above Section 124.

Photographers

Season passes will be provided to accredited photographers from New Orleans area daily newspapers and television stations who plan on covering at least 30 of the 41 regular season home games. Weekly newspaper photographers will be handled on an individual game basis. Photographers must be on assignment for a publication to be credentialed. Limited space is available at each end of the court for both television and still photographers. Photographers must stay in the designated area. Photographers may not sit on equipment cases and live television cameras have first priority on location and right of way. All NBA league rules regarding photography apply.

Internet Access

Wireless and hard line internet access is available in the media work room as well as the press seating areas. To request a hard line for internet, please contact a member of the Pelicans basketball communications staff.

Pre and Post-Game Interviews

In accordance with NBA policy, the locker rooms are open to members of the media from 75 minutes until 45 minutes before the game and within 10 minutes after the game. Players from both teams are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the media with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker room. Your cooperation is requested in maintaining a professional atmosphere in the locker room for pre and post-game interviews. Per NBA policy, still photography and use of cellular phones in the locker room is prohibited. Head Coach Alvin Gentry will be available 105 minutes prior to tip-off outside the team's locker room. The opposing head coach will be available 90 minutes prior to the game outside the visiting locker room. Both head coaches will address the media approximately 10 minutes following the game outside of their respective locker rooms.

NBATV Arena Link Room

The NBATV Arena Link room at the Smoothie King Center is stationed next to the Pelicans player entrance. Should you need to utilize the Arena Link system, please contact a member of the Pelicans basketball communications department.

Live Shots

Television stations wishing to conduct live shots may do so pre and post-game. Live shots may be staged courtside along either baseline behind the designated photographer areas. Pre-game live shots must conclude no later than 30 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the game.

Game Notes and Statistics

Game notes and additional press materials are available in the press room four hours before each game. Statistics are distributed to the working media during the game and are also available in the press room. Post-game notes and quotes are distributed a short time following the completion of the game. In an effort to reduce our paper consumption, in-game statistics for print media, as well as post-game notes and quotes, will be distributed via email. Box scores and game books will be available in the media workroom. Statistics monitors are provided for television and radio broadcasts as well as for print and television media.

Injury Reports/Updates

Reports and updates on players who are injured during a game will be distributed by the Pelicans basketball communications department. Additionally, please follow @PelicansPR on twitter for in-game reports and updates.

Meals

A complimentary pre-game meal is served in the media room at the Smoothie King Center three hours before each game. Beverages and snacks are available in the press room at halftime and post-game.

LOGOS / MARKS

PRIMARY LOGO

PARTIAL LOGO

WORDMARK
Inspired by French Quarter street signs.

FLEUR-DE-LIS
A most notable symbol of New Orleans, the Fleur-de-lis is also represented within the primary and secondary marks. Its roots lie within its French origin and the deep cultural heritage of our city and is thus displayed on the city's flag. The mark, however, came to mean much more after Hurricane Katrina devastated the region, and came to symbolize the heart and resolve of the city.

CRESCENT BASKETBALL
Coined the "Crescent City" in 1835, New Orleans derived its popular nickname as it was established along the semi-circle bend of the Mississippi River. The crescent shape is thereby represented in several of the marks.

SECONDARY LOGOS

"BIRD-DE-LIS"
Incorporates pelican, fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

CIRCULAR
Incorporates cultural reference to "Crescent City" more formally and includes fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

NOLA
Refers to New Orleans, LA and includes fleur-de-lis.

NEW ORLEANS PELICANS OFFICIAL COLORS

PELICANS NAVY	PANTONE 289	100C/76M/12C/70Y	22G/65B
PELICANS GOLD*	PANTONE 872	40C/48M/76Y/16K	180R/151G/90B
PELICANS RED	PANTONE 186	91M/76Y/6K	225R/58G/62B

for alternative flat applications use Pantone 465*

Blue, gold and red are the colors represented in the flag of New Orleans.

PRIMARY - BLUE
Representative of the state flag of Louisiana. Traditionally represents liberty (as in the City of New Orleans flag).

SECONDARY - GOLD
The raucous embellishment and flourish that represents the spirited life of New Orleans. It's a color indicative of the city itself. It ties together this organization (shared color with the Saints), the rich and diverse history of the city and its culture of celebration. It's the color often found in the "crown" of pelicans and represented the championships we intend to win.

TERTIARY - RED
Red signifies fraternity, one blood or union, as with this team of players. It also represents the legend of the mother pelican pricking her own breast to feed her young in times of need, doing whatever it takes to endure. It's found on the throat of this powerful bird and provides a flash of intensity.

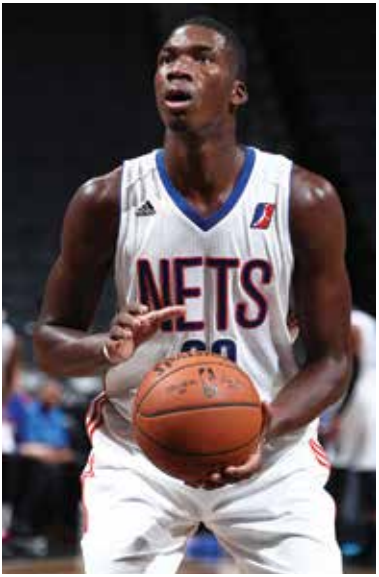
PELICANS NBA G LEAGUE FRANCHISE



Pelicans forward Cheick Diallo during an assignment with the Long Island Nets during the 2016-17 season

On March 30, 2017, the New Orleans Pelicans announced their intention to own and operate an NBA G League franchise to begin play at the start of the 2018-19 season. Based on organization and league research, the franchise sent requests for proposals to 11 cities/communities throughout the Gulf South region, including seven in Louisiana, two in Mississippi, one in Alabama and one in Florida. On April 25, it was announced that six communities had responded affirmatively to the proposal requests - Baton Rouge, LA; Jackson, MS; Pensacola, FL; St. Tammany Parish, LA and Shreveport, LA, with a June 7 deadline to submit a comprehensive proposal to the Pelicans.

Prior to the launch of their own minor league affiliate, the Pelicans shared affiliations with other NBA teams with the Albuquere/New Mexico Thunderbirds (2005-11), Iowa Energy (2011-14) and the Fort Wayne Mad Ants (2014-15), allowing the Pelicans to assign players with less than three years of NBA experience to their affiliate franchise. Since the 2015-16 season, all NBA teams independent from a direct one-to-one affiliation with an NBA G League franchise have been afforded the opportunity to assign players to one of the teams in the NBA's minor league through the flexible assignment system.

Introduced in the newest NBA Collective Bargaining Agreement, taking effect prior to the start of the 2017-18 season, will be "two-way contracts". These new contracts will allow NBA teams to retain the rights of up to two players who will primarily play in the NBA G League, but will have the ability to be called up to their NBA team for a total of 45 days during the season.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

The New Orleans Pelicans community efforts focus on two key initiatives critical to the future success and prosperity of the Gulf South region: the health and sustainability of our coastal wetlands and the health and fitness of our region's children.

In conjunction with our community and corporate partners, the Pelicans continue to execute several outreach programs that positively impact and inspire the lives of individuals in our community.

The health of the coastal wetlands is vital to growth and success of the state and region. The Louisiana wetlands provide 30% of the seafood catch in the contiguous U.S. Our wetlands habitat is also home to a wide variety and number of wildlife and plants.

Over 80% of wetland loss in the United States occurs in Louisiana – the equivalent of 12 basketball courts is lost every 30 minutes. The Gulf Coast has lost more than 55% of the wetlands that were here when the first Europeans arrived in the 15th century – a loss of more than 100 million acres.

The New Orleans Pelicans and the Audubon Nature Institute continue to team up to help preserve Louisiana's coast and wetlands. The long-term partnership focuses specifically on educating students on the effects of coastal restoration on the Region, as well as inspiring them to take action to ensure the long-term health of the coast.

The Pelicans organization is an advocate for the health and wellness of children in the Gulf South. With the ongoing goal of helping kids find the excitement in being active, the Pelicans host their Junior Training Camp program presented by Smoothie King, and Ochsner Health System. Junior Training Camps engage students in activities focused on creating a fun and memorable basketball experience, while also being active and healthy.

The Pelicans and Biddy Basketball, an internationally recognized youth basketball development program, have partnered with the goal of promoting and growing local youth participation in basketball. They work closely together on the organization of numerous basketball and life skills clinics across the Gulf South region, enhancing the branding and uniform experiences for the players, creating special nights, tournaments and promotions at New Orleans Pelicans home games while continually emphasizing and highlighting the efforts of Biddy Basketball and youth basketball. Biddy Basketball, which has been headquartered in New Orleans since the 1960's, adheres to its mission of providing instructions and guidelines for properly developing fundamentally sound basketball skills while also helping children gain knowledge, skills and competencies in basketball coupled with learning the importance of teamwork and other important social skills. Biddy Basketball has implemented smaller basketballs, lower goals and the distance of the free throw line to better fit the younger athletes. These simple modifications permit the players to learn the fundamentals of the game and to develop their ball handling skills with regard to their age and physical abilities.

The Pelicans also support the Jr. NBA presented by Under Armour initiative, the NBA's youth basketball participation program for boys and girls ages 6-14. The Jr. NBA teaches the fundamental skills as well as the core values of the game at the grassroots level in an effort to help grow and improve the youth basketball experience for players, coaches and parents.

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. NBA Cares programs and participants have provided more than 4.5 million hours of hands-on service and created more than 1,210 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in communities around the world. The NBA also engages more than 26 million youth annually, inspiring play and teaching the values of the game. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including: Thurgood Marshall College Fund, Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.
